HENRY FORD TAKES STAND IN TRIAL OF HIS LIBEL SUIT

Manufacturer Follows Son as Witness in Case Against the Chicago Daily Tribune.

HEARING ENTERING ITS THIRD MONTH

Edsel Ford Testifies Government Made No Advances to Ford Company on Its Heavy War Contracts.

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., July 14.—Henry Ford took the stand as a witness today in his $1,000,000 libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune.

He was called as a witness for the Tribune, which he is suing for $1,000,000 because in 1916 the paper characterized him as an anarchist. He followed his son Edsel on the stand. Direct examination was by Elliott G. Stevenson.

Ford had been waiting since last Thursday to testify. He gave his age as 55 years and in answering preliminary questions he sketched the familiar details of the formation of the Ford Motor Co. 14 years ago with a capital of $100,000.

Tribune in 1914 Praised Ford. Mr. Stevenson offered in evidence a Tribune editorial of Jan. 14, 1914, in which the Ford plan of a $5 minimum wage was commended in glowing terms as marking a new era in the standard of relations between employer and employee.

"Anything malicious in that, Mr. Ford?" asked Mr. Stevenson. "No," replied the witness, in a low voice.

"It states your position fully and fairly," "Yes."

Another editorial, "Extremes in Michigan," in 1914, was read. It contrasted the lot of Northern Michigan miners who lost a nine months' strike and returned to work, with that of Ford employees who were being paid and being helped to pay for homes. The course of the mine owners led backward, the editorial declared, and that of Henry Ford forward.

"Anything malicious in that?" again asked the attorney. "No." A third editorial asserted that Mr. Ford was a greater business man than a philanthropist. It referred to him as one of the great geniuses of the world. Witness admitted there was nothing malicious in it.

The Government advanced no money to the Ford Motor Co. for war work, according to the testimony of Edsel Ford, president of the company, who was cross-examined by Attorney Alfred Lucking when the third month of the trial opened today.

"There were times when the raw material was on the ground, and work on it started, that the Government reimbursed us," continued the witness.

The cross-examination of Edsel Ford was intended to show that Henry Ford was devoting all his resources in 1917 to prosecution of the war against Germany and doing so without a cent of profit to himself.

On re-direct examination of Edsel Ford, Attorney Elliott G. Stevenson of Tribune counsel, sought to show that the Ford company was compelled to do war work or do nothing. "No," replied Ford, "that is not true. The Government controlled raw material, but I think we could have continued on a restricted basis." "But you would have had to lay off thousands of men and wreck your organization?" "Yes, it would have wrecked the organization."

CROP WOULD PAY FOR FARM

Calhoun County Man Sells Apples for More Than Land Cost.

John E. Nelson of Calhoun County has sold his apple crop for more than he paid for his farm in 1917. Nelson bought the 40-acre orchard near Glad for $1200, and he sold his apples this year for $1400. Last year the hail ruined his crop, but the year he bought the orchard his apples sold for $1500.

HOUSE FAILS TO PASS DAYLIGHT LAW REPEAL OVER VETO

Effort to Put Through Agricultural Bill Without Change Doesn't Get Required Vote.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The House failed to pass the agricultural appropriation bill, with its rider repealing the daylight saving law, over the veto of President Wilson. The vote was 247 to 135, or 23 affirmative votes less than the required two-thirds majority.

Immediately after Speaker Gillett announced the result amid the applause of supporters of the daylight saving law, the bill was referred back to the Agricultural Committee, which will meet, probably tomorrow, to report the measure with the repeal rider eliminated.

Because of the House action, the Senate will not have the opportunity to attempt the passage of the bill over the President's veto. The House vote did not divide along political lines, the proponents of the repeal being those representing agricultural districts.

The agricultural bill will be passed with the repeal rider eliminated and it was said that no effort would be made to pass the repeal measure as a separate bill, as it undoubtedly would be vetoed by the President. Under the new defeated rider, the law would have been repealed on Oct. 26.

WILLARD-DEMPSEY SNAPSHOT RUSHED TO ENGLAND BY R-34

Latest Photographs Taken in U. S. Are Printed by London Papers.

LONDON, July 14.—Photographs taken recently in the United States and brought to England by the dirigible R-34 and to London by airplane from Fulham are published by the morning newspapers. This is looked upon as the first step toward the prediction by Viscount Northcliffe that a quick interchange of New York and London newspapers and photographs by aerial post was a possibility of the near future.

The photographs brought by the R-34 include President Wilson's arrival at New York, a view of the R-34 taken from an American airship and a snapshot of the first knockdown in the Willard-Dempsey fight at Toledo on July 4.

The newspapers also published a photograph showing a four-day-old American newspaper being delivered at Buckingham Palace, the home of King George.

FARE SIGNS ON STREET CARS

Passengers Are Instructed to Deposit Money in Coin Boxes.

Signs notifying passengers to deposit their cash fares in the coin boxes instead of handing the money to conductors have appeared on all cars of the United Railways in the last two days.

The signs, which bear the signature of Rolla Wells, receiver for the company, are posted over windows on the front platform. Officials of the company said the signs were for the information of the public. They declined to state whether there has been a noticeable decrease in the cash fares registered by the coin boxes recently.

Another change will be the departure at 12:40 p. m. of the east-bound Pennsylvania train which now leaves St. Louis at 12:15 p. m. It will arrive in New York at 5:55 p. m., the same as at present.

These changes were announced in new schedules received today by P. W. Coyle, manager of the traffic bureau of the Chamber of Commerce.

NUMBER OF CONGRESSMEN RECEIVED AT WHITE HOUSE

Variety of Subjects Discussed in First Conference Since Objects to Enforcing Prohibition.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—President Wilson today received a number of Senators and Representatives who called at the White House to discuss a variety of subjects.

The engagements today were the first made for the President since his return from Paris.

The President discussed the peace treaty at length with Senators King of Utah and McKellar of Tennessee, Democrats. It was understood that particular attention was given to the Shantung situation and after the conference Senator King published a statement that the President would be invited to appear before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to explain various features of the treaty for the President last Thursday. Mr. Hitchcock observed that, of course, Mr. Wilson would be a busy man for a few days, and any time he wanted anything the Senator would be at his service, so it was quite natural for Mr. Wilson to get a telephone call from the President today and quite natural for both to look upon the published stories as wholly superfluous.

The President talked at length with the Senator from Nebraska, outlining what seemed best to be done in handling the league of nations fight. Mr. Wilson probably would be glad to invite the membership of the Foreign Relations Committee to come to the White House.

If the Shantung wouldn't come to Mahomet, then Mahomet would go to the Mountain—anything to offset the notion that the President will not consult the Senate or advise intimately with its members, a criticism which it will be remembered, has been flung at the President repeatedly.

The Republican chairman of the committee, Mr. Clegg, said that he was glad to see the President so busy.

BOARD RECOMMENDS REAR ADMIRAL BLUE FOR RETIREMENT

Chief of Bureau of Navigation Has Been Ill at Great Lakes for Several Months.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Rear Admiral Victor Blue, chief of the Bureau of Navigation, who has been ill several months and is in the hospital at Great Lakes, has been recommended for retirement by a board of naval medical officers. Secretary Daniels announced today that Admiral Blue's successor would be named as soon as President Wilson had approved the board's recommendation.

Admiral Blue is 54 years old. He was appointed to the Naval Academy from South Carolina in 1883 and was advanced five times in rank for extraordinary heroism in the Spanish-American war.

TWO WOMEN AND MAN HURT IN FIGHT WITH ARGO STRIKERS

Cars Bearing Nonunion Workers Are Stopped and Armed Guards Fire Many Shots.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Two women and a man were seriously injured today when strikers at the plant of the Corn Products Refining Co. at Argos, Ind., stopped street cars carrying nonunion men and clashed with guards. There were 20 armed guards of the company on the cars and many shots were fired. It was the first violence reported in the village since the riot last Tuesday night, when three persons were killed and more than a score wounded.

There was a clash between strikers and guards in front of the Argos hospital. Fighting occurred in several other sections during the early morning hours in which 10 other men and women were reported to have been slightly injured. The Corn Products Refining Co. asked Sheriff Peters for more deputies to maintain peace.

Officials declare that the company now is operating the Argos plant at virtually full capacity and that all but a few hundred strikers had returned to work. This is denied, however, by strike leaders.

Six strikers, three men and three women, were arrested by deputy sheriffs on a charge of participation in the riot.

PRESIDENT ASKS HITCHCOCK TO TAKE CHARGE OF FIGHT

Story of Frigidity Between Executive and Nebraskan Disappears After Cordial Conversation.

COMMITTEEMEN MAY GO TO WHITE HOUSE

Wilson Informs Hitchcock He Would Invite Members to Confer With Him as Often as They Chose.

By DAVID LAWRENCE. A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—President Wilson told Senator Hitchcock today he wants him to take charge of the fight in the Senate on behalf of the league of nations and the peace treaty. Thus ends an interval of alleged fridity which became the subject of comment upon the occasion of Mr. Wilson's visit to the Senate last week. Judging by the warmth and cordiality of tone in their conversation today, the thermometer neither went up nor down on the week-end; in fact, the impression grows that the story of coolness had a very fragile foundation, if any.

The true story of what did happen seems to be this: Senator Hitchcock has been conducting the President's fight in the Senate, answering the arguments of the opponents of the league and generally bearing the burden of leadership. Once or twice Mr. Wilson called his thanks. After Mr. Wilson delivered his address to the Senate, he stroled into the Marble room and held an informal reception. Senator Hitchcock was one of the Democratic Senators who happened in. That night it became known that the Nebraska Senator was going away for a golf trip. Whereupon those who were curious about the departure of the Nebraska Senator, like the sought information and didn't find among Mr. Hitchcock's friends anybody who said Mr. Wilson had delivered himself of any appreciative remarks when he saw the Senator or that he had said anything one way or another about conducting the fight in the Senate. Also it became known that the Senator from Virginia would deliver the first speech on the league on Monday. Putting two and two together the surmises went out that all was not well between the Senator and the President.

President Was Concerned. Opponents of the league accepted the division in ranks with satisfaction and the story not nation-wide publicity. Instantly came the denial. Secretary Tumulty, who was on the Jersey coast for the week-end, telephoned a denial, which was issued promptly to the press. Senator Hitchcock's alert secretary denied that Hitchcock had abandoned the fight.

The President was somewhat concerned over the newspaper stories. He probably looked upon them as an attempt to make mischief. Anyway, he saw the President rising to the occasion. The President would be back. And the Nebraska Senator hadn't been in town an hour when the telephone bell rang and the President's cheerful voice came over the wire.

Mr. Wilson told the Senator he hoped there hadn't been any annoyance over the published stories, and the Nebraska Senator answered, "Not the slightest." Indeed, what the general public didn't know, but which leaked out upon the return of the Senator today, is that on meeting the President last Thursday, Mr. Hitchcock observed that, of course, Mr. Wilson would be a busy man for a few days, and any time he wanted anything the Senator would be at his service, so it was quite natural for Mr. Wilson to get a telephone call from the President today and quite natural for both to look upon the published stories as wholly superfluous.

RELATIVES OF FRENCH DEAD FILE ALL NIGHT PAST EMPTY CASKET IN PARIS

By the Associated Press. PARIS, July 14.

W HILE youth and beauty danced on the boulevards last night, a far different scene was enacted near the Arc de Triomphe in the vast Place de l'Etoile. All the evening and until late at night a seemingly endless line of somberly-clad persons filed slowly and silently before the huge cenotaph—the empty casket in memory of the dead—placed in the shadow of the arch. This sad procession was composed of families of the dead.

Vast crowds of spectators were held back by the police while the procession enacted this pathetic ceremony. This respect for the dead, a strong trait of French character, seemed more solemn for the quiet that prevailed over such a great crowd.

In the dusk of the evening searchlights played on the cenotaph and clouds of incense rose from the great urns. Mounted Republican Guards, sitting on horses like statues, held torches. Through the night they kept their vigil. The ceremony at the Cenotaph was opened formally by a delegation of City Councillors, escorted in state by the republican guards. This delegation laid a magnificent palm on the casket as the city's tribute.

Each family that mourned for some one of its members was allowed to bring a single flower. As these came hour after hour the empty casket soon was buried.

As the mourners went quietly and slowly by, many were weeping. Some found consolation in the thought that the sacrifices made by those who died and by those they left behind were not in vain. This was visualized by the absence from the Arc de Triomphe of the chains which had barred the passage under arch since Prussia's victory of 1870.

EFFORT TO GET VOTE ON SENATE RESOLUTIONS DRY LAW REPEAL FAILS

Amendment by Igoo to Pending Enforcement Bill Is Ruled Out of Order.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—An attempt to force a vote on repeal of wartime prohibition failed today in the House. On a point of order raised by Chairman Volstead of Judiciary Committee, an amendment to the pending prohibition enforcement bill, proposed by Representative Igoo, Democrat, of Missouri, was ruled out of order.

NO ALCOHOLIC CASES IN 2 DAYS

Record Made at City Hospital and Dispensary.

For the first time in the history of the City Hospital and City Dispensary, there were no alcoholic cases in the inebriate wards of either institution Saturday or Sunday nights. The ban on strong liquors is supposed to be responsible for the slump.

Veteran policemen and physicians are able to remember a few Sunday nights in the past when there were no cases of alcoholism, but the two-night record is a new one.

DELIRIUM TREMENS CASES INCREASE IN CHICAGO

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 14.—An increase of approximately 50 per cent in the number of sufferers from delirium tremens in Chicago is shown in the report of the city workhouse for the first two weeks of July, as compared with a similar period of last year. Seventy-five cases of delirium tremens were received at hospital of the Bridewell from July 1, when wartime prohibition went into effect, to today, as against 60 during the same period a year ago.

1500 AMERICANS WILDLY CHEERED; REJOICING THRONGS FILL THE CAPITAL

Parade Is Led by Thousand Wounded Men and Marshal Joffre Rides Alone Ahead of Marshal Foch and Gen. Pershing and Other American Generals.

PARIS, July 14.—The triumphal march of allied and American troops through Paris—a column of them three miles long—began at 8 o'clock this morning. The weather was brilliant, being more like October than midsummer.

A thousand wounded soldiers with crutches or in wheel chairs and clad for the most part in civilian clothes, led the parade, being preceded by a drum corps. Guns began firing at minute intervals as President Poincaré placed a wreath at the foot of the cenotaph at the Arc de Triomphe.

A French soldier, an Alsatian girl, a girl from Lorraine and Col. Edmund Gros, this last wreath in memory of 72 members of the Lafayette escadrille who lost their lives during the war.

Joffre Precedes Foch. Marshal Joffre, the victor of the first battle of the Marne, passed under the Arc de Triomphe at 8:45 o'clock. He rode alone. Behind him came Marshal Foch, the Commander in Chief of the allied forces during the final campaign of the conflict.

A storm of applause arose from the vast throng as the two Marshals passed the President's stand and moved down the brilliant avenue.

Gen. John J. Pershing, with a number of American Generals, came next in line and was received with equal enthusiasm. American soldiers and marines, marching with wonderful precision, were greeted by a sea of waving handkerchiefs and flags and with deafening cheers.

Col. Hensley's Story of the R-34's Return Cruise to England

AMERICAN OFFICER WRITES OF THE WONDERFUL SIGHTS OBSERVED IN THE CLOUDS

Army Man Handles Wheel Many Times During Voyage—Meteorological Expert Avoids Bad Weather.

By COL. WM. H. HENSLEY, U. S. A., American Observer on the R-34's Return Trip.

LONDON, July 13.—I entered the forward gondola at 10:59 p. m. on Wednesday, July 9, and was told to go to the keel station, which would be my landing station.

My first impression was that I had entered the separator room of a creamery. The word was passed that if it should be shouted out for everybody to go aft, "you will nip along there," pointing down a very narrow and forbidding passageway. Then I was introduced to the "brogue," which and drinking water can.

I saw Maj. Scott, the commanding officer, come aboard at 11:20, which assured me that we would soon get away. The hissing of hydrogen coming out of the high pressure cylinders into the gas compartments told me that we were rapidly taking on lift. At 11:36 the No. 4 compartment blew off. This was caused by the compartment being tied off from the others.

What first impresses one in the interior of the R-34 is the cleanliness on all sides (everything shines like a new silver dollar) and the apparent immensity of distances. The keep might properly be called a butler's pantry. Dishes were swinging in wire crates—bread here, bottled potatoes there, tins of jam, butter and most everything else.

Elated at His Opportunity. What are my feelings at this moment? They are of one of elation that I was chosen for this trip and have thus in a small way become a pioneer on the trackless air lane from America to Europe. And there is a tugging at the heartstrings when I think of my wife and baby boy.

At 11:53 o'clock the order was given for everybody on the ground to clear the car. Then came the order to cast off the after guys. The forward motor was started at 11:55, followed by the other four.

The silence on the field was marked. The word was passed at 11:55 that "All is clear off." At 11:59 o'clock p. m. the R-34 started from America for England.

The motors were now running at full speed. There was very light vibration. The word was passed at 12:00, "All is clear off." At 12:00 o'clock p. m. the R-34 started from America for England.

degrees, wind practically following on or off of ship. Rudders and elevators were very steady. There was no apparent motion to the ship. The sky was partly overcast, but the visibility was good. The sky was choppy. Our speed was 55 knots.

I turned in at 2:30 a. m. July 11, and was awakened at 6:10 by a terrific crash. One of the connecting rods on the aft engine had broken. Throwing around it completely wrecked one of the aft motors.

As there are two motors geared to the propeller in the aft car, the propeller could be run by the other engine, but very inefficiently. We had been running since leaving on the two motors amidships and the aft motor.

The forward motor had been stopped. Now, since we had been running on the two amidships and the forward motor.

In the galley, consisting of hard boiled eggs, cold ham, bread and butter, and jam, pies and hot tea. It was very excellent breakfast. I turned in for sleep again at 8:30, as my next watch was at noon, July 10.

I had lunch at 11:39 with Gen. Maitland and Maj. Scott. The lunch consisted of sausage, bread and butter and sliced pineapples. The enlisted ate in one half of the galley, while the commissioned officers had the other half to themselves. During the meal we were entertained by Harry Lauder, the Scotch comedian, on the phonograph.

We were having music with our meals, that we were actually traveling across the Atlantic ocean in an airship.

to our observation in the sky it was both interesting and beautiful. The outstanding things that attract your attention are the roads, which seem to come from no place in particular and go to the same place. They wander leisurely here and there on curves and right lines. From a height they would indicate a metal surface, but I am informed that they do not have such a surface. Here and there, scattered along roads, are small isolated groups of houses, always white, against the green background of the surrounding plots. Of course there are innumerable lakes and lagoons with what appear to be small sloops riding at anchor. Frequently one passes over a pretentious dwelling. One in particular appeared as if it might be some feudal castle with its surrounding grounds of buildings as a protection. It was back deep in the woods on the steep slope of a hill and commanded the admiration of all in the ship because of its size and architectural beauty.

At this point it was necessary to climb to 5000 feet in order to get over the mountains. We were now on a direct line from Clifton to East Fortune, our base.

After crossing the mountains we came out into a low, flat country, which in appearance showed decidedly more of the actual Irish character. Intense cultivation, except for the bogs, where trenches are seen from which peat is taken. Having traveled much by air in the United States I was struck by the crazy quilted pattern of the cultivated ground in this part of Ireland. No two plots as far as the eye could see were the same size or shape.

At 7:25 a. m. Greenwich mean time, as I write these last few lines to my log of this remarkable aerial voyage, it seems only a few hours ago that khaki-clad doughboys were setting the ropes amid tremendous cheers from the thousands of Americans gathered to wish Godspeed to the R-34 on her return home. Now the ship is speeding through the streets of London for the first time in its life.

Before leaving the airship I want to take this opportunity of expressing my deep appreciation of the marked courtesy and consideration shown me by the officers and crew of the R-34.

R-34'S RETURN TRIP TO ENGLAND MADE IN 75 HOURS

Airship Lands in Pulham at 7 A. M. After a Voyage That Is Without Special Incident.

BEAT BAD WEATHER BY JUMP EACH TIME

Col. Hensley, Who Was Over New York Thursday Morning, Reaches London at Noon Sunday.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

LONDON, July 14.—The round trip of the transatlantic airship R-34 ended yesterday morning at 6:56, Greenwich mean time (1:56 a. m. St. Louis time) at Pulham. The trip back was completed with little ostentation except from the crews which were standing ready to warp her safely into her berth alongside of the R-33. The return journey was being made through the streets of London for the first time in its life.

It is extremely probable that he will urge the United States Government to obtain one of Germany's super-Zeppelins. He would not deny that in the near future he hoped to get a Zeppelin and fly it home with an American crew.

Gen. Maitland anticipated that the superairships of the near future would have steel frames instead of duralumin. This view is also held by Col. Hensley, who said: "A rigid frame airship of 15,000,000 cubic feet is assured in the near future. I believe it could weather any storm."

LANSING BELIEVES FRANCE WILL SURMOUNT DIFFICULTIES

Optimistic View of Reconstruction Is Contained in His Farewell to Nation, Delivered Through Press.

PARIS, July 14.—In the statement issued to the French press Saturday, prior to his departure for Great Britain, Gen. Maitland expressed belief in the courage which had carried France through to victory would bring her through the trying period of reconstruction. The Secretary's statement followed:

"May I, through the French press, bid an affectionate farewell to France and the French people and express my deep gratitude for all the courtesies they have shown me during the months I have been here. I return home with a deep sense of what France has suffered in the war, but with a still deeper conviction that the courage which brought her through to victory will carry her over the trying days of reconstruction."

I think that I should say that a delay in the sailing of my steamer has brought my departure to the eve of that day so historic to France and which now is doubly consecrated by the first victory parade of the allied armaments.

"The temptation to remain in great, but imperative necessity prevents my doing so. The demands of peace, including the ratification of the treaty and the Franco-American agreement, and the expansion of the work of America's Department of Foreign Affairs to meet the needs of the world, are no less stern than those of war and I am sure that the French people, to whom I am deeply indebted, will appreciate better than many others the call of duty."

SENATOR SWANSON
ANSWERS CRITICS OF WORLD LEAGUE

Virginian, Member of Foreign Relations Committee, Defends Covenant in Address Before Senate.

URGES NATION NOT TO SKULK IN CRISIS

Says Agreement of Powers Does Not Sacrifice United States' Sovereignty or Monroe Doctrine.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Praising... the league of nations covenant as...
"one of the world's greatest documents," Senator Swanson of Virginia... a Democratic member of the Foreign Relations Committee, told the...
Senate today that if the United States... rejected the league, it would mean... that she would "skulk in the greatest world crisis that ever occurred."

The speaker defended the league... against the objections that it would...
sacrifice sovereignty and American...
traditions and asserted that on the... contrary it would result in immense... material gain in protecting American... integrity and preventing war. He... declared it would not create a supergovernment, involve objectionable... obligations nor invalidate the Monroe... doctrine.

"The pathway of our duty is... plain," said Senator Swanson. "Let... us not be frightened by our own...
prophetic shadow as it projects itself into world affairs. Let us not...
be deterred from our manifest duty... and destiny by a craven fear of becoming great in giving service and... direction to a world in a dire hour of...
its need and distress."

Pointing out that the war has...
shaken the social order to its foundations the Virginia Senator said it... was the paramount obligation of responsible statesmen to prevent another such conflagration, which...
would return the world to the rule...
of brute force and barbarism of the...
dark ages."

Defends League Covenant.

"The covenant of the league has...
been assailed from two opposite...
sources," he continued. "The league...
will neither be a supplant nor sovereignty, nor a helpless, powerless... association of nations. The instrument creating the league is a 'covenant' entered into by sovereign... states. One of the attributes of sovereignty is the ability to make covenants or agreements. That a state... reserves its full sovereignty is conclusively settled by the provision allowing any member to withdraw from...
the league, superior or otherwise, ever...
thus expressly provided means for its...
dissolution."

"This covenant if ratified by the...
Senate would be no more than a... treaty legalized under our...
Constitution. The plan for the formation of the league is skillfully conceived, and the only one possible under existing political conditions."

"The assembly of the league will... be composed of representatives of...
members who will be selected in accordance with the laws of respective... states. In the case of the United...
States, the representatives, being officers created by treaty, will be appointed as provided by an act of...
Congress. Much opposition was... aroused because the Monroe Doctrine... the United States has only one vote... in the assembly. But what difference does the number of votes make...
when, upon all important matters...
the action of the assembly must be...
unanimous or have the unanimous... concurrence of the council, upon...
which the United States is permanently represented."

Upholds Vote Basis.

"The league could not be organized on any basis other than that... of equal representation. If members were accorded difference in representation upon what basis should...
the difference be made? If upon... population, China and India would... dominate the league and the United...
States would have only one-fiftieth... of the number. If based upon wealth...
and military power the situation...
would be as equally uncertain and...
unsatisfactory."

"What better plan for disarmament... could be devised? The covenant has directed to prepare a general plan for disarmament for the... sanction of Governments, which... plan is not binding upon any of the...
states until approved by that state...
Under our Government the proposed... plan to be effective in binding us...
must have the sanction of Congress... which is entrusted under the Constitution with the power of raising... the armies and equipping the navy."

"Under article 10 each member of... the league undertakes, first, to respect the territorial integrity and... political independence of all other... members of the league. When the...
nations of the world, sobered by sorrow and suffering, are willing to... raise their hands and take this solemn pledge, are we suddenly and... stubbornly to stand aside and become a stumbling block in the way... of this noble achievement? Do any...
of them have possessions that we...
view with covetous eyes and propose to seize and annex?"

"The second obligation assumed by... each member is to 'preserve as... against external aggression and...
secure the territorial integrity and...
political independence of all members of a league.' This is a natural corollary from the first. In

HARRY S. NEW JR. TO BE ARRAIGNED TOMORROW

Defense in Los Angeles Murder Trial Deprived of Cross-Examining Jury Witnesses.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 14.—The... county grand jury, in returning an...
indictment charging murder in the... first degree against Harry S. New...
Jr., confessed slayer of his sweetheart, the beautiful Frieda Lesser, deprived the defense of the privilege...
of cross-examining the prosecution's...
witnesses until the case comes to... trial in the Superior Court. There... will be no preliminary hearing.

The witnesses before the jury in the... new investigation were Police Detective Herman Cline, who obtained the... confession; Dr. A. F. Wager, police... autopsy surgeon; Policeman D. A. Davidson, who met New... when he surrendered at police headquarters, and Hannah Minis, a friend... of the Lesser family, who identified... the body. New will be arraigned...
Tuesday morning.

While the grand jury was in session New paced his cell in the county... jail, and vehemently denying the... story related by Mrs. Hazel Pritchard... who says that on the night of the... murder, New went to a resort and...
dined with several young women.

New will be aided at his trial by...
United States attorney Harry S. New... of Indiana, his father. This became... known today when John L. Richardson... attorney for the slayer, indicated that...
Senator New will be asked to make a... deposition.

At the same time it was learned at...
the District Attorney's office that efforts will be made to obtain a deposition from the slayer's girl's sweetheart in Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Lillie M. Burger, New's mother... who has declared that Senator New... is his father, has said that she... would not ask the Senate for any... assistance, but this statement is believed to have referred only to financial aid.

a Franco-American attack, with a gain...

will be necessary for us in the present...

"We should also reflect that the...

affecting the Monroe Doctrine, which... guarantees the validity of engage-or regional understandings like the...

Monroe Doctrine for securing the...

declared the article undoubtedly made...
a "clear, explicit reservation" of the...
doctrine.

said, "as far as we are concerned, the... provisions of the covenant are annulled and the Monroe Doctrine sur-

this clear reservation."

Objections that the doctrine is not...

Swanson declared unfounded. "The... purpose of the article is to secure the...
possibility of permanent peace upon...
this hemisphere," he distinctly limits...
the doctrine to the Western Hemisphere... and commands it for securing the...

ALTON TO FIGHT HIGH PRICES

Manufacturers' Association will Open Retail Store. The Manufacturers' Association of Alton is planning the opening of a retail store to combat the high price of foodstuffs. Ten manufacturers will give $10,000 apiece toward the capital stock of the store, which will be managed by a man appointed by the association. The store will buy in large quantities and sell at prices slightly above cost. A store, which will have the support of the Manufacturers' Association, will be opened at Wood River by 250 employees of the Standard Oil refinery there, each of whom will give $20 toward the capital stock.

U. R. MAY ABANDON UNION DEPOT LINES

Advisability of Dropping That Part of System and Letting U. S. Foreclose, Is Discussed.

The advisability of dropping the Union Depot lines from the United Railways system was discussed at today's hearing before Judge Lamm on the application of Receiver Wells for permission to issue receivership certificates to pay the company's indebtedness of $2,125,000 to the United States Government for which the matured bonds of the Union Depot Railway Co. were part of the collateral.

Judge Lamm said it had been suggested by some interests that the best procedure would be to "cut off" the Union Depot properties and permit the Government to foreclose on that portion of the system. He said he desired a full hearing on this proposition.

James Adkins, treasurer of the company, defined the Union Depot system as being a large part of the present Bellefontaine, Tower Grove, Cherokee and Belt lines.

Col. Albert T. Perkins, new general manager of the company, testified that in his judgment it would not be wise to cut off the Union Depot system, as its lines served a great part of the downtown section, as well as the north and northwest sections and the south and southwest sections.

James Adkins, treasurer of the United Railways Co., was called to testify to the receipts and operating expenses for the period of the receivership, beginning April 12 last. Adkins gave figures as to the actual receipts and expenses from April 12 to May 31, and gave an estimate covering the remainder of the year 1919, from May 31 through Dec. 31. His estimate for the last seven months of this year, he said, was based on the figures for 1918, with 2 per cent added for normal annual increase of business, and $250,000 added to make up for the loss during the influenza period last fall.

Actual Receipts $2,160,368. He said the actual receipts for the period from April 12 to May 31 were $2,164,368.22, excluding nonoperating receipts. The operating expenses were $1,704,729.27, and there was charged off for depreciation $216,368.22 for injuries and damages. $129,982.09 for insurance reserve, $124,746.76, and for taxes, $164,544.09. The net income was $461,638.95, and the income from nonoperating sources $662.37, making a total of $470,261.32. The interest payable on bonds and notes is $336,822.80, and deducting this, a net profit of $133,438.52 is shown for the period.

The estimated income from operating sources for the remainder of the year, June 1 to Dec. 31, inclusive, is $7,425,479.49, and the estimated operating expenses $5,284,066.12. After deduction of depreciation and other items, the addition of $40,000 from nonoperating sources, a total of $1,533,540.29 is shown. Interest due is $1,444,315.76, leaving only $89,224.53 as net profit.

Added to the profit for April 12 to May 31 inclusive, the total profit from the beginning of the receivership to the end of the year 1919 would be $222,840.02.

Adkins testified that the exhibit showed the amounts received and made payments of all the company's outstanding bond obligations.

ANTI-SUFFRAGISTS TO FIGHT FOR DEFEAT OF AMENDMENT

Association Will Oppose It in 13 States; Challenges Bryan to Prove Statements.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage announces that it has set out to obtain the defeat of the woman suffrage amendment by at least 13 states, and issued an open challenge to William Jennings Bryan to prove statements that he had made in making an address at Montgomery, Ala., that ratification of the Federal woman suffrage amendment would be a "sure guarantee of continued and lasting peace" and "that the forces of evil are lined up against the ballot for women."

In answer to the first statement by Bryan, the association declared that Germany had been given "great consolation" by the Woman's International Congress at Zurich, attended by a number of American suffrage advocates. Replying to the second assertion, the association said that there was no connection between suffrage and prohibition, as shown in Texas, which defeated woman suffrage and approved prohibition on the same day; in West Virginia, which gave prohibition 90-400 majority and defeated suffrage by 98,000; in Ohio, which defeated suffrage three times at the polls and adopted prohibition by popular vote, and in California, which has defeated prohibition three times.

REJECTION OF INCREASE LIKELY

Marine Workers Expected to Turn Down Shipping Board's Proposal.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Officials of marine workers' unions on strike here and at other Atlantic ports were confident today that the wage increase concessions granted by the Shipping Board in Washington yesterday would not act as a means of settling the controversy.

Representatives of the various unions at meetings today were expected to reject the Shipping Board's proposal of a 10 per cent wage increase to all employees on vessels operated by it. The terms offered by the Shipping Board are approximately the same as those guaranteed by private shipping interests.

WATCHMAN PREVENTS $10,000 SILK ROBBERY

Discovers Pile of Merchandise
Ready to Be Carted Away—
Several Burglaries Reported.

Truck burglars, safe robbers, highwaymen and plain burglars were busy Saturday night and yesterday, continuing the activity started Friday night for the first time since war-time prohibition went into effect.

The vigilance of Private Watchman Martin Ryan, who guards the wholesale district on Washington avenue, prevented the wholesale theft of between $10,000 and $12,000 worth of silks from the Sachs Manufacturing Co., on the fifth floor of the Martin Building, 923 Washington avenue, at 7 p. m. yesterday.

Ryan, inspecting the building after seeing a man walking up and down in front of the place, discovered a pile of silks had been carried from the fifth floor to the first floor to cart away. He ran out and tried to catch the man outside. The latter escaped. Ryan fired a shot in the air which brought policemen.

An investigation revealed that the burglars had prepared the wholesale theft by climbing a rear stairway, sawing a lock from a door and then smashing a wire-protected window in a stock room on the fifth floor. The stock room, the police were told, contained about $25,000 worth of silks.

M. A. Cohn, 5310 Maple avenue, treasurer of the company, said he would take an inventory of the stock today to ascertain whether or not anything had been stolen.

Dry Goods Store Stripped.
Truck burglars practically "cleaned out" the dry goods store of Fred Westhoff, 5357 St. Louis avenue. Shirts, dresses and other articles valued at $1650 were stolen.

Burglars in the home of Tony Moretti, 209 Locust street, during his absence, stole diamonds, clothing and cash valued at $1500.

Safe robbers, after knocking off the combination on a safe in the offices of the St. Louis & Northwestern Bottling Co., 1741 Biddle street, abandoned their efforts to get the door open and carried off an electric fan.

They forced a safe in the office of the St. Louis Glue Co., 2125 Division street, stealing $10.25 cash, $1.25 in stamps and 300 lead pencils. From another part of the office they also took an electric fan.

Efforts of safe robbers to get into a safe in the office of the S. A. Weisenborn & Son Coal Co., 945 Hordamont avenue, failed after they had knocked off the combination. They tore a telephone from the wall, broke open the cash box and took the contents—all slugs, the police were told. Liberty bonds and $92.50 in the safe were not taken.

At the J. C. Getz Furniture Co., 1315 Market street, burglars had drilled two holes in the safe when their drill broke and they abandoned the effort, leaving the broken drill on the floor. They broke open a desk and took $3 in stamps from a drawer.

Tunnel Through Brick Wall.
Burglars tunneled through a 13-inch brick wall in the rear of the Acme Bicycle and Auto Repair shop, 214 North Twelfth street, Sunday night. Finding no cash they took two automobile tires. The hole was large enough to permit the passage of a policeman.

At the Immaculate Conception Church, 1700 Longfellow boulevard, burglars who broke into the basement stole two electric fans from the floor above. Burglars also broke into the St. Mary and Joseph Catholic Church, 6508 Minnesota avenue, and took an electric vacuum cleaner valued at $35.

Dr. Morris R. East, a dentist, with offices in the Manchester Building, 4111 Chouteau avenue, pursued a daylight burglar who tried to get into his office at 2 p. m. He pursued the man to Sarah street and Chouteau avenue, where the burglar jumped into a waiting automobile and escaped. The burglar, the doctor told police, apparently thought the office vacant when he tried the door and found it locked.

He started to enter over the transom and fled when the doctor tried to catch him inside. He dropped his hat and a screw driver in his haste to get away.

A shirt containing $880, the savings of Dionisio Georgian, 210 South Sixth street, was stolen from his room there when he went to the third floor to take a bath. He had left the shirt on a bed with the money in the pocket.

Richard Smith, 4578 Evans avenue, a milk wagon driver, was held up by two armed men near Good-fellow and Clemens avenues and robbed of $1.40.

Street car pickpockets robbed Albert Rickelsteiger, 3712 Hebert street, of $60, and Frederick Weymann, 1844 Hebert street, of $80, while both were on their way into the city on the Natural Bridge line.

A confidence man worked an old scheme at the drug store of Louis Greengard, De Baliviere and Pershing avenues. He telephoned the store and asked that a boy be sent to 2534 Pershing avenue with change for $10 and $1 worth of drugs he ordered. When the boy delivered the order the man gave him a check and took the $9 and drugs. The check was found to be worthless.

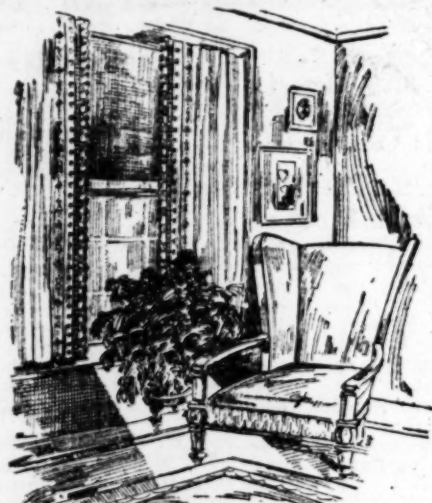

The safe in the office of the Gross Chandler Co., 2034-36 Morgan street, withstood the efforts of burglars to break off the combination early today, the police were told. The robbers used tools in the shop. The men got into the place by breaking a basement window and riding from there to the second floor in an elevator.

Nicholas Pippert, a druggist of 3549 Finney avenue, was held up at 1 o'clock this morning by two armed men at Warne and Sullivan avenues.

They took $65 and a watch and chain valued at $75.
S. S. Solvey, 4103 Washington avenue, was robbed of a wallet containing $200 and a $34 check last evening while getting on a Grand car at Grand and Sullivan avenues after the ball game.

Serbian Evacuating Temesvar.
By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, July 14.—The Rumanian bureau at Berne announces that the Serbian force which has been occupying the city of Temesvar, 72 miles northeast of Belgrade, is evacuating the place, taking with them everything of value, including 40 locomotives, 1500 railroad cars, machinery from factories, animals and household articles. The Rumanian Government, according to the bureau, has declined another offer from Nikolai Lenine, the Bolshevik Premier of Russia, for the arrangement of an alliance between Rumania and Russia.

STRIKING TRANSFER DRIVERS RETURNING TO THEIR WORK

Head of Columbia Company Says 40 Per Cent of 300 Who Went Out Are On Duty

About 40 per cent of the drivers of the Columbia Transfer Co. who went on strike unexpectedly Saturday morning returned to work today, according to L. W. Childress, president of the company. About 300 drivers, chauffeurs and baggage helpers were involved in the strike, which completely tied up the company's transfer and baggage delivery business yesterday and Saturday.

The strikers are members of the teamsters' union, but the strike was not authorized by the officers of the union, according to Dan Murphy, business agent of the union.

No demands were presented by the strikers, according to Childress. He said the company had a contract with the union at a wage scale of $18 a week not to expire until 1920, but that the company had increased the wages to $24 a week because of living conditions. He said the company would not treat with the strikers while they are out, but would consider any reasonable demands after they return to work under their present contract.

NEGRO PROWLER ARRESTED

Police Say He Was Carrying Stolen Milk and Silverware

James Moore, a negro, who says his home is at Poplar Bluff, Mo., was arrested at Clayton road and McCausland avenue yesterday after police had received numerous complaints from that territory about the actions of a negro.

Mabel Donnelly, a telephone operator, 1104 Louisville avenue, complained that a negro had followed her from a Market street car to a point near her home at 1 a. m.

A short time after this incident, Clarence Billington, 1108 Louisville avenue, fired a shot at a negro he saw prowling around the yard of his home and trying to get into the house.

Moore, when arrested, was carrying two bottles of milk, six Sunday newspapers and 15 pieces of silverware. The milk and papers, police say, were taken from doorsteps in the neighborhood. The silverware is being held for identification.

TWO CONFESS FRAUD
IN OBTAINING TIRES

Prisoners Admit They Are Members of Gang of Five That Worked False Credit System.

Russell E. Wakely, 22 years old, 4101 Botanical avenue, and Grover C. Hess, 30, who gave his address as the Maryland Hotel, confessed to the police today that they were members of a gang of five who made it a practice to buy automobile tires on false credit and resell them. The police say about $10,000 worth of tires were handled in this way.

In his written confession Hess said he obtained about $2000 worth of tires by representing himself as the personal agent of Horace Milliken, a grain broker, and as an employee of the John T. Milliken Chemical Co.

Wakely confessed that he obtained five tires by representing himself as financial agent of the Olympia Motor Co. He said he was coached by Hess. He bought the tires for $35 each, he said, and sold them for $15 each.

Hess was sentenced to serve six months in the Workhouse on a tire theft charge July 6. About two years ago he was sentenced to serve a year in the Workhouse on a manslaughter charge after he had run down and killed Mrs. Carrie Wandelman in his automobile at Gravois avenue and Itasca street.

Wakely and Hess were arrested Saturday on complaint of L. H. Vinling, manager of the Victor-St. Louis Tire Co., who traced Hess after selling him $160 worth of tires.

In their confessions they gave the police a list of 15 firms from which they had obtained tires and also the names of three other men who they said were their accomplices.

SPRUCE PRODUCTION DIVISION ACCUSED OF MISUSE OF FUNDS

Evidence Is Presented to House Committee to Show Wholesale Waste in Money and Supplies.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Affidavits purporting to show criminal misuse of public funds by the Spruce Production Division of the Army Air Service, collected during the last year by the Providence Journal, have been submitted to the special House committee investigating War Department expenditures, and are being investigated by a subcommittee, of which Representative Fear of Wisconsin is chairman.

According to a statement by Fear, the affidavits allege that contracts for spruce production and railroad construction on the Pacific Coast were awarded under the cost-plus system to companies which had no practical experience in the work, with the result that great sums of money were wasted.

"Charges are made," the statement says, "that the Government was subjected, under the cost-plus system, to a cost of practically $650 per 1000 feet for spruce when private concerns were procuring the same kind for from $130 to $175."

"The affidavits assert that the waste caused by companies in building camps in inaccessible localities ran into many thousands of dollars; that there was an utter lack of proper care of foodstuffs and that in many cases hundreds of dollars' worth of flour, lard, even pepper, were carelessly thrown into the mud at the side of the road and left to rot. In one instance, stoves were left exposed to the weather and ruined."

Col. Bryce F. Discus, a former chief of the spruce production, is criticized in the affidavits for having adopted wasteful methods. By his adoption of a process for splitting logs, it is charged, only 200,000 feet of timber was obtained from 3,000,000 feet of logs by one mill and only 5 per cent of the timber was fit for airplane stock.

50,000 CHEER DE VALERA
AT BIG CHICAGO MEETING

Demonstration Lasts 31 Minutes When President of Irish Republic Takes Stand.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, July 14.—An audience of 50,000 persons, it was estimated, heard Eamon de Valera, "President of the Irish Republic," appeal for aid and recognition of Irish independence at an open air meeting in the Chicago National League baseball park yesterday. De Valera was greeted by a demonstration of cheering that lasted for 31 minutes. A soldier in a Canadian uniform mounted the speaker's stand and led the cheering.

Some of the spectators raised when the names of President Wilson, Premier Lloyd George and Sir Edward Carson, Irish Unionist leader, were mentioned. Persons on the speaker's platform, however, soon stopped these demonstrations.

De Valera, in his first public address here Saturday expressed confidence that America was sympathized with the Irish independence movement, and urged the American Government to recognize the "de Jure Government" of Ireland.

Resolutions that Congress be urged to "recognize the Irish Republic as now established" and to establish trade relations with Ireland for the benefit of American commerce and labor, and strongly opposing the league of nations, were adopted with enthusiasm. The league, it was declared, would impair American sovereignty and would imperil the Constitution, destroying the Monroe Doctrine and guarantee the world supremacy of the two remaining despotic empires of the world—Great Britain and Japan.

ADVANCE IN PRICE OF COAL AROUSES BRITISH TO PROTEST

Labor Leaders Charge Government With Effort to Block Nationalization of Industries.

LONDON, July 14.—Seldom has any people received such a swift and vivid lesson in practical economics as the British Government has given by the notice in the House of Commons Wednesday that it was advancing the price of coal six shillings per ton ($1.50) from next Wednesday. Almost every branch of industry in the kingdom has served notice that is must pass the cost on to buyers and consumers.

The Government apparently meant this to be an object lesson as to what would result from the prevalent agitation for higher wages and shorter working hours. It also seems to be trying to throw cold water on the campaign for the nationalization of industries by trying to show that Government management does not mean that wages can be increased and prices decreased indefinitely.
Labor has taken up the mantle immediately, charging the Government with wishing to kill the plan of nationalization.

During the last stages of the war the Government was running the railroads at a loss, according to a statement made before the House of Commons by Sir Eric Geddes, Minister for National Service and Reconstruction. This loss is now at the rate of $300,000,000 a year. The deficit in the coal industry is estimated at $233,000,000. The subsidy on bread, that is the difference between the cost of wheat and selling prices, has amounted to $250,000,000.
The Government holds that the increase of six shillings was necessitated by increased wages granted.

At a meeting of Northumberland miners William C. Anderson, leader of the labor party, said that the advance in coal was meant to "stop a political stampede against the Lloyd George administration and to kill nationalism."

John Hodge, the labor leader, said:
"If we are too weak politically we must test ourselves industrially." It was thought that he was referring to the ultimate weapon of a general strike.

ANSELL, WHO SOUGHT REFORM OF ARMY JUSTICE, TO RESIGN

Storm Center of Fight Over Courts-martial Will Leave Law Partnership.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Lieutenant-Colonel Samuel T. Ansell, who has been the storm center for months of the row over the military justice in the army, will tender his resignation to the Secretary of War within the next few days, possibly before the end of the present week. Col.
Ansell will form a law partnership with a New York firm, which will maintain offices both in New York and Washington.

Friends of Ansell declare that he considers his fight for reform in the system of military justice a the army to have reached the stage where he has done all that he can do for it and retain his army commission. A bill for a complete revision of the Articles of War has been introduced in the House by Representative Royal Johnson of South Dakota and in the Senate by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon.

The greater part of Col. Ansell's career in the army has been devoted to legal phases of the organization.
In 1906 he requested the War Department to be allowed to defend a soldier named Grafton on a murder charge when the case reached the Supreme Court of the United States.
The case involved the question of double jeopardy of a soldier who, having been tried by courtmartial, was arraigned by the civil courts.
Ansell was denied the assignment, but his contention won out before the highest court in the decision that the trial by courtmartial and later by civil courts constituted double jeopardy and was unconstitutional.
This view was opposed to that of the regular army. In 1908 he defended a soldier in his own regiment who was tried at a murder charge in the civil courts and obtained acquittal.

MAINE SARDINE INDUSTRY THREATENED BY PROHIBITION

Factories Remain Closed Because Passing of Salmon Made Big Decrease in Demand.

BANGOR, Me., July 14.—Maine's sardine industry is threatened. The sardine factories are not opening up this season because of prohibition. In the big cities, where the cheering cup was having its day, the barrooms supplied their customers with a lunch to go with beer, wine or gin, and nothing went so well with any of the appetizers as the sardine.

While Refuses to Do Baking When she can buy delicious bread and rolls at Barker System of Bakeries. Always fresh. Three stores downtown. Stores always crowded.—Adv.

BLAME FOR DEATH NOT FIXED

Man Found With Lacerations on Head Dies at Hospital.

A coroner's jury today failed to fix responsibility for the death of Harry Fields, 29 years old, electrician and laborer, who died at the City Hospital Saturday night. He resided at the St. Clair Hotel, 1141 Market street, and was taken to the hospital July 4 suffering from lacerations on the head.

While intoxicated he told the police that the injuries were inflicted by a bartender at 901 Market street in an argument. Later when he was sober the bartender at that address was brought to the hospital but Fields refused to identify him.

12-YEAR-OLD MUSIC WIZARD OF ITALY WAS BORN IN U. S.

Child Who Led Big Orchestra at Age of 4 Saw Light in Portland, Me.

Correspondence of the Associated Press. ROME, June 17.—Willy Ferrero, age 12, who leads 100-piece orchestras in selections of Wagner, Beethoven, Rossini, Grieg and others, is an American and was born in Portland, Me. The child has attracted the attention of Europe since he was 4 years old, but it was only recently that his American birth was revealed by his parents, who are Italian.

The father told the Associated Press correspondent that Willy carried an American passport but that his name thereon was William Ferrero, a name he had chosen for him while he had worked in Maine when the child was born.

The father said that at the age of 2 the lad was brought to Italy, whither his parents were returning to take up their residence in their old home in Turin. When Willy was 4 he began his musical career, leading an orchestra in the Folies Bergere in Paris. A year later he appeared in the Costanza Theater, Rome, where for the first time he led an orchestra of 100 pieces. The program was composed of Wagnerian, Beethoven and other heavy selections.

The child took his orchestra before Emperor Nicholas in 1913, and conducted two concerts for the monarch. In the same year his orchestra was filling an engagement in London, and he was commanded to appear before Queen Alexandra of England, at Marlborough House. He appeared before Pope Benedict XV in 1916.

In April, 1915, just before Italy's declaration of war, Willy was presented with the gold medal by the Italian Minister of Education after he had made a successful appearance in the Augusteum, where he had conducted an orchestra and chorus aggregating 500 participants.

CHURCHES UNITE IN SERVICES

Baptist and Methodist Congregations Arrange Vacation for Ministers.

The congregations of St. John's Methodist Episcopal Church South and the Second Baptist Church have united in worship for July and August, that their respective pastors may enjoy vacations without halting services. Both churches are at King's highway and Washington avenue. Services were held yesterday morning in St. John's Church. The full choir of St. John's furnished the music and an informal reception was given for the Baptist neighbors. In August the Methodists will go across the street to hear the Baptists' minister, who will return from his vacation before the first Sunday of the month.

MAN WHO FOUGHT OVER WOMAN HELD AS SLAYER OF HIS RIVAL

Coroner's Jury Investigates Fatal Fight and Shooting on Broadway

A coroner's jury today held George Luly, 34 years old, an electrician, 904 Barton street, in connection with the fatal shooting Saturday night of William Johnson, 29, a teamster, 2421 South Broadway. The men quarreled over a woman. Johnson died an hour later at the city hospital from two bullet wounds in the abdomen. The shooting was at Broadway and Trudeau street.

Luly told the police he shot Johnson after the latter drew a revolver and fired at him. A witness said he did not see Johnson have a revolver, but said the men exchanged blows. Johnson ran, and was shot as he tried to get away.

Mrs. Florence Rice, 19 years old, 2115 South Fourth street, over whom the men quarreled, was Luly's housekeeper for several months. When she became housekeeper for Johnson. The change was responsible for the trouble between the men, Luly said.

Mrs. Rice testified at the inquest that Johnson showed her a revolver Saturday night, and told her he intended to "settle" Luly. Barkey Romoquer, Mrs. Rice's brother, was with Johnson when he was shot, and described the affray. In which, he said, he did not see Johnson have a revolver.

POLICEMAN WHOSE WOUNDS PROVED FATAL

LIEUT. WILLIAM J. SMITH.

POLICE CHIEF COMING BACK FOR FUNERAL OF LIEUT. SMITH

Police Honors Will Be Given Officer Who Died Last Night From Shots Fired by Meramec Bank Robbers. The funeral of Police Lieut. William J. Smith of 3540 Vista avenue, who died in St. John's Hospital last night from wounds inflicted by the Meramec Trust Co. robbers June 12, will be arranged after the return of Chief of Police O'Brien, who is coming from Meramec Springs, Mo., where he has been spending his vacation. The funeral will be held with full police honors, it was announced today, and the police zouaves, in which Smith was a lieutenant, will attend in a body, besides a regular police escort.

Lieut. Smith was wounded in the head, the chest and the left arm, the head wound causing blindness. He recently left the Alexian Brothers' Hospital, but he had a relapse Saturday at his home. Patrolman Thomas Ward, who was shot by the Meramec robbers, died June 13. At the time of the robbery, Smith was a sergeant, but he was promoted by the Police Board in recognition of his bravery.

POLICE RAID FIRST ALLEGED WAR PROHIBITION BLIND PIG

Seven Are Arrested When Beer and Whisky Are Found on Sale in House.

The first alleged "blind pig" to be discovered by police since the beginning of the war-time prohibition was uncovered by Special Policemen Rawlings and McLeod, Central District, early yesterday in a house at 2012 Walnut street. A quart and a pint of whisky, a case of beer and a barrel of bottled beer and nearly 100 empty bottles were confiscated. Seven arrests were made.

The policemen paid $3.50 for a pint of whisky in obtaining the evidence on which they made the raid. They reported they were standing at Twentieth and Market streets at 12:10 a. m., when Henry Smith, 18, a negro, 2007 Market street, edged alongside and whispered, "Want a drink of liquor?"

Rawlings said he did. Smith led them to Twentieth and Walnut streets, where he introduced them to Luther Coleman, negro, 2012 1/2 Walnut street. Coleman took them another half block and introduced them to William Thompson, 2012 Walnut street. With Thompson they concluded the negotiations for the liquor. He gave them a pint bottle with the label scratched off. They gave him marked money and arrested the three.

Later they raided Thompson's home and found evidence of drinking, the additional quart of whisky and the beer and empties.

Four other negroes were arrested. James McLaughlin, in charge of the investigating bureau of the Department of Justice in St. Louis, today said that if the police had sufficient evidence he would apply for warrants for the negroes. The penalty for selling intoxicants is $1000 fine or a year in jail, or both.

FOUR WOMEN AND SIX MEN ARRESTED IN LIQUOR RAID

Police Recruits Say They Bought Two Bottles of Beer in House.

Four women and six men were arrested when Lieut. Stinger and the gambling squad raided the home of Mrs. Margaretta Barry, 318 North Newstead avenue, at 12:30 a. m. yesterday in a search for liquor.

John P. Kelly of the police School of Instruction, who has been gathering evidence for the squad for the past month, was first sent to the house with another recruit. They reported they had been able to buy two bottles of beer for which they were charged 80 cents. The raid followed. Mrs. Barry was not at home at the time.

A woman who gave her name as Alice McGuire, 21 years old, living at that address, was charged with the sale of the liquor. William H. Masterson, 40, who said he was in charge of the place, was taken into custody. Five other men and three women found there also were taken to the station.

Lighting the Trenches

During the recent war the world came into a full and complete understanding of the value of efficient and comprehensive organization on the part of big business.

One phase of the aid that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) was able to render is interesting.

The U. S. Government called on the Company for candles, and in an incredibly short space of time the initial shipment was made.

In all, 285,000,000 candles were shipped from Whiting, Indiana, to France—about 85 candles for every man in the United States uniform.

The Standard Oil Company makes candles from the by-products of crude oil.

Besides serving a most useful and necessary purpose in themselves, the manufacture of candles enables the Company to keep down the manufacturing cost of gasoline, so that you may run your car without great expense for fuel.

This is only a single and minor phase of the part played by the Company in helping to win the war, but it serves to illustrate the usefulness of the Company as a public servant, and the benefits accruing to the world at large from Standard Oil Company (Indiana) operations.

Members expressed chagrin, it became evident that a measure of repeal would be made to the President's. When daylight saving was being House in the form of a separate measure, before it was taken to the agricultural bill as a vote in favor of repeal. A two-thirds vote of this vote would have been. Though these figures indicate the fight to override the President will be close, it does not follow that the division will be the same on the repeal provision. For some Democrats who favor the repeal doubtless will swing to the President and by the token some Republicans will support the repeal. The issue against the country is now being fought by that of standing by the President.

At least one state delegation will be to overturn the President's. That is the Kansas continuation, which ordinarily like Kansas, is dead set against daylight saving and has raised a louder cry against it than any other.

Has Received Instructions.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Preparation for the early return of General Pershing and his personal staff from France is indicated, army officials in recent dispatches from the front. Crating of the voluminous records of the expeditionary forces in France is well advanced. The ship is expected to be completed and shipment of the expeditionary forces is about to begin. Army officials have been issued conferring with Major-General Allen, new commander of the American forces on the Rhine, many of the prerogatives of Gen. Pershing.

REPORTS OF FRICTION BETWEEN GEN. PERSHING AND GEN. MARCH, CHIEF OF THE AMERICAN FORCES IN FRANCE, were declared to be without foundation by War Department officials. Those duties place them in close contact with everything which is done between those officers. That there have been instances of differences of opinion is admitted, but even these cases were said to be exceptional.

STORFF ADVISES GERMANS ADOPT PRO-AMERICAN POLICY

The Nation Must Look to U. S. for Revision of Treaty Through League of Nations. The Associated Press. BERLIN, July 13.—Count von Storff, former German Ambassador at Washington, writing in the daily Democratic Germany, advocates a pro-American policy and says that a revision of the treaty of peace can come only through the League of Nations. When Germany is received into the league, he says, "she can hope a world order checking imperialism by individual Powers and giving about a system binding together across the frontiers of peace. I hardly need to point out that such a policy would lead us to the danger of a league of nations is being one. There alone are funds to be found and there the principal mission of the league idea will be the help for another 20 months." Count von Storff says that the league is unpopular in the United States, and therefore, if Germany is to cultivate friendly relations with that country, they must convince Americans, not only that million is dead, but that new Germany has no intention of fostering socialist world revolution.

Fashions at the Capital

The Well-Dressed Woman of Smart Society—What She Wears, the Time and the Place.

By Margaret Wade.

WASHINGTON, July 11. COLOR appears to be the hall mark of fashion in summer attire at the national capital, although Mrs. Wilson is the usual, set in a good example in the matter of the frocks. This no doubt is the result of her girlhood training in old Virginia, where all about her native country are to be found many men yet old who love to talk of the fashions of the former Edith Bolling Wilson.

Mrs. Wilson has substituted colors for the outdoor wear of 20 years ago and for most formal occasions has her gowns of black with a beautiful combination of satin and lace as her favorite dinner gown for formal occasions.

For her daily drive, her informal wear to old friends and almost daily on her mother the Mistress of White House is wearing white. Well-cut suit of linen topped by a broad hat of Panama, banded in a green grain ribbon is so chic becoming one is inclined to believe it was made in the same exclusive establishment that is to supply dinner and reception gowns of winter as well as several smart hats that rumor says are to be held in reserve for the entertaining of society.

With the assurance (unofficial but reliable) that the first of the dignitaries to be his Royal Highness Edward Albert Christian, Prince of Wales, there is a marked fashion on the part of the socialites to remain within call of the White House no matter how the thermometer may soar, in the hope that the executive hospitality will be limited to the executive circle. Several youthful belles have declined invitations for the late summer that they may be able to come to the White House garden party at the White House.

Now that the midsummer styles are established, pink, blue, green and yellow all have a 1919 tone. The distinction between these colors of former years, which, of course, adds to their value in the viewpoint of both fashion and finance.

MRS. MARSHALL is endorsing pink as presented by the latest importations. This shade in the Vice President's wife has been becoming afternoon gown of a geranium than rose color. The advantage of being quite being to either fair or dark woman. Mrs. Marshall's gown, although imported satin, is made in America and in becoming straight lines, the overdress turned in at the hem, fashion, and the top a closely-draped model.

THE French blue of the exclusive 1919 variety finds a splendid model in Mrs. Frederick H. Hitt, wife of the Speaker of the House, who is wearing a dinner gown this shade in a superlative quality. The gown is a long-sleeved, high-necked, with deep fitted collar of white organdie and cuffs of the same on the long sleeves.

THE new coloring is not confined to silk or satin as Mrs. Riano is wearing one of the smartest and frocks in orange and white. The material is a large checkerboard plaid, which, when worn, great distinction could wear with black, and the gown as plain as a sheet, with narrow white cuffs and long sleeves and collar of the same turning back from the neck. Mrs. Riano wore this gown one afternoon at the Chevy Chase Club, with a large round hat black horsehair band.

MRS. C. C. CALHOUN shows the effect of her New Orleans rear. In the delightful way in which she combines comfort and style in her warm weather dress. Although supposed to be at her home at Princeton for the summer, Mrs. Calhoun slips in and out of Washington and is to be met either in white or in black organdie any day of the day, at home or in her car. These gowns, for she has a dozen, six with wide sleeves and all the same model, a plain skirt, deep hem and a surplus bodice of material. Being in mourning, her gowns are undecorated by a sash as a pilot edge, and invariably with a round organdie hat black or white.

MR. HENRY PARKER, the former Miss Eleanor Ridgely and a great belle, is remaining in her Washington home later than usual as his daughter, a granddaughter of the late Senator Cullum finds Washington more interesting than any place else in the world. Mrs. Parker at one of the recent dinner parties showed herself smartly dressed as of yore in a gown of pale tulle combined with silver lace. This is a real summer time gown as the foundation slip is of silver tissue and the tulle a real sky blue, all very becoming to the graceful brown-haired young matron.

MRS. HENRY G. GILTON, the American wife of the Secretary of the British Embassy, who recently for her parents' home in Michigan to pass a part of the summer, wore to make some of her calls a very simple and very becoming gown of black figured tulle with extremely stylish little black Panama with dull satin trim. This gown has a slightly black skirt that was neither con-

What the Well-Dressed Woman in Paris Is Wearing at the Races and on the "Bois."

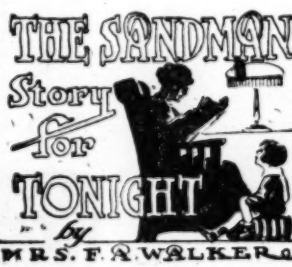

When pale gray cloth starts by being a collar, and ends by being coat fronts, it needs a narrow, black patent belt to keep it in order.

PARIS, July 11.—It is wonderful how effective navy blue can be when it is scattered in rows of squares over a smart wrap of beige gabardine.

She strolled down the "Bois" with great dignity, clad in a smart frock of the white-and-navy serge embroidered in navy, and a navy coat to match, trimmed with black soutache.

It was Madame Charlotte, the striking directress of "Premiers," who wore this exquisite frock of navy taffeta, fine organdie and lace at Longchamps.

The happy crowds in the Longchamps "Passe," the babel of voices and the lovely tulle all go to prove how content Parisians are to have their race meetings once more.

EVA A. TINGEY.

spiciously short or narrow with a surplus bodice, finished in a beauteous, blue in a smart frock of the white-and-navy serge embroidered in navy, and a navy coat to match, trimmed with black soutache.

MRS. THEODORE BALDWIN who proposes passing the summer in the tiered skirt with the three sections all of the finest accordion pleating. The bodice was very plain but of perfect cut and workmanship with shallow neck finished in a beauteous, blue in a smart frock of the white-and-navy serge embroidered in navy, and a navy coat to match, trimmed with black soutache.

Another smart afternoon gown worn by this same modish young woman is white crepe de chine brocaded in dark blue in a detached floral design of allover pattern. This like the green gown is very narrow in the skirt with close draped bodice and long sleeves. A sash of dark blue satin is a feature of this gown with which is worn a large red straw hat.

MIS ISABELLE WELLS is also wearing the latest effect in blue, but in millinery. Miss Wells tops a smart black gown with a tall turban which has its crown encircled in wheat heads in three single lines. The wheat being of the new tone unrelieved by any other trimming.

Seven-Room Tent Home for Motorists. THE up-to-date cross-country motorist may now equip himself with a most elaborate roadside home. Weighing completely only 124 pounds, the entire equipment may be lashed to the running board; yet, when erected, it will furnish four bedrooms, a 7 by 11 foot dining room with a similar room for general purposes, and a 20 by 8 1/2 foot garage. Screened windows with storm flaps keep out mosquitoes and bad weather. Another feature which recommends this new accessory is the fact that the tent is not dependent on the auto for support. Hence the family may take an evening ride to the local movies, or other trip, after the labor of pitching tent and cooking supper.—Popular Mechanics.

THE ROOM WITH THE TASSELS

By CAROLYN WELLS.

CHAPTER I.

Wanted: A Haunted House.

"BUT I know it's so—for Mrs. Fairbanks saw it herself, and heard it, too!" The air of finality in the gaze leveled at Braye defied contradiction, so he merely smiled at the girl who was doing the talking. But, talking or silent, Eve Carnforth was well worth smiling at. Her red hair was of that thin, silky, flat-lying sort that spells temper, but looks lovely, and her white, delicate skin—perhaps the least bit hand-painted—showed temperamental, while her eyes, of the color called beryl—whatever that is—showed all sorts of things.

Then from her canna-lued lips fell more wisdom. "And Prof. Hardwick believes it, too, and he's—" "A college professor," broke in Landon, "don't try to flit his refinement. But really, Eve, you mustn't believe in spooks—it isn't done."

"Oh, but it is! You've no idea how many people—scientific and talented—people who are leaning toward spiritualism just now. Why, Sir Oliver Lodge says that after the war great and powerful assistance will be given by spirit helpers in matters of reconstruction and great problems of science."

Milly Landon's laugh rang out, and she politely clapped a little, fat hand over her mouth. "You're kidding, Eve," she said. "They're not real, Wynne; they're immaterial, of course, but that isn't being unreal. You have a real soul, haven't you, although it is immaterial. And I suppose you don't call your mind material, even if your brain is."

"Now you're quibbling, Eve," and Landon grew a bit more serious. "When I say unreal, I mean imperceptible to the senses. I hold that a departed spirit cannot return to earth and be seen, heard or felt by mortal human beings. All the stories of such things to the contrary notwithstanding. If you or anyone else has power to show me a visible spook—I beg pardon, phantasm—I'll be glad to see it, but I'm from Missouri. I wouldn't be a bit afraid of it, but I'd have to be jolly well convinced of its integrity. No faked-up spooks would go down with me!"

"But how can you know?" asked Milly. "I'd be scared to death of one, I'm sure, but if Wynne wants to see one, I do. Let's all go to a seance, and whatever they call the things. Shall we?" "No, indeed!" cried Eve. "Professional seances are always fakes. And I don't aspire to see one. If we could get some messages from the beyond, that would satisfy me."

"Get messages how?" asked Braye. "Oh, by a Ouija board, or some such way." "Ouija!" derided Landon; "that's the biggest fraud of all!" "Only in the hands of frauds. If we tried it here by ourselves and if we all trusted each other not to stoop to deception of any sort that would be a fair test."

"I'd like that," and Milly giggled in pleased anticipation. "That would be a fair test," said Eve, seriously. "We're not a pack of silly children who want to trick one another. If we could get together some evening and have an

Eve informed them. "She may have been old-fashioned, but she believed thoroughly in the spiritual reappearance of her friends who died, and especially took comfort in the communion and visitation of her dead husband."

"It's this way, I think," offered Braye; "it seems to me it's like that old 'Lady of the Tiger' story, you believe or not, according to your character or disposition. You know, it depended on you. You knew, I suppose, whether you think the lady came out of the door or the Tiger. And so with spooks, if you want to believe in them, you do."

"Don't say spooks, please," begged Eve. "Say phantasms, or even ghosts."

"Is that the usage in the best mediumistic circles?" and Braye smiled. "Well, I think I could more easily believe in a spook than a phantasm. The latter sounds so unreal, but a good honest Injun spook seems sort of plausible."

"They're all unreal," began Landon, but Eve interrupted. "They're not unreal, Wynne; they're immaterial, of course, but that isn't being unreal. You have a real soul, haven't you, although it is immaterial. And I suppose you don't call your mind material, even if your brain is."

"Now you're quibbling, Eve," and Landon grew a bit more serious. "When I say unreal, I mean imperceptible to the senses. "I'd like that," and Milly giggled in pleased anticipation. "That would be a fair test," said Eve, seriously. "We're not a pack of silly children who want to trick one another. If we could get together some evening and have an earnest, serious test, I'd agree. But not if there's to be the least suspicion of anybody's trying trickery."

"At this point two more callers arrived, and Milly jumped up to greet them."

"Mr. Bruce!" she exclaimed, "how nice to see you! And Vernie—my goodness, how you've grown!"

"Indeed, yes," and Vernie Reid, a most lively and energetic sub-16 of 16, darted from one to another, greeting all with interest.

"Hello, Cousin Rudolph, what are you doing here? Mooning after Miss Carnworth, I suppose. Dear Mrs. Landon, let me sit here by you. I want to show you my graduating gifts."

"Oh, yes, you've just had commencement, haven't you?"

"Yes, and Uncle Gifford gave me this heavenly wrist-watch, and my respected Cousin Rudolph, over there, sent me this pendant. Isn't it stunning? Oh, I had beautiful presents. I'd like to graduate every year."

"Aren't you going to school any more at all?"

"Dunno yet. Uncle Gifford says I am, I say I'm not. It remains to be seen. Though I don't mind confiding to you that I usually get my own way. And, too, out in Chicago, you know, we're not such terrible high-brows. Something tells me my schooldays are over. I think Uncle Giff needs the pleasure of my society at home. And, too, I want to get acquainted with Cousin Rudolph. Until this week I haven't seen him for years."

"He isn't your cousin, Vernie."

"Same as he. He's a son of Uncle Giff's half-brother, and I'm a daughter of Uncle's own sister, so it sort of even up. Anyway, I like Cousin Rudolph, because he's such a good-looking young man, and he's promised to take me round New York some. That's why I'm so jealous of Miss Carnforth or any other girl."

Vernie was so pretty that her chatter amused the whole crowd. She was brown-haired and brown-eyed, and somewhat of a browned complexion, by reason of much tennis and outdoor life at the school from which she had just graduated. And after a summer spent among the Eastern resorts, she and her uncle were to return to their Chicago home, where they had lived all of Vernie's orphaned life. Gifford Bruce doted the girl and though often short and crabbed in his manner to others, he was never cross or stern to his dead sister's child.

"What were you talking about when we came in?" Vernie asked, smiling at Milly. "You were all so earnest, it must have been something important."

"Of ghosts," answered Braye, looking at the pretty child. "Do you enjoy them?"

"Oh, don't I!" cried Vernie. "Why, at school we just ate 'em up! Table tips and all such things, as soon as lights were out!"

Timely Hitting and Pinch Hurling Win 2 for Browns; Team Tied for 4th Place

Sothoron Wins Eighth Straight Victory When He Downs Mackmen in Opening Contest—Shocker, With Two On, None Out and Score Even, Blanks Enemy—48,000 See Double-Header.

ABILITY to come through with hits in the pinches, coupled with good pitching by Allan Sothoron (who scored his eighth straight conquest), Ernie Koob and Urban Shocker, netted the Browns a double victory over the Athletics yesterday, 4-3 and 6-4, the last game requiring 11 innings. The double success put the Burkemen in a tie with the Tigers for fourth place.

Kenneth Williams and Joe Gedeon came through with the safeties that won for Sothoron, while Herman Bronkie, pinching for Jimmy Austin, who at present is injured, proved the hero of the nightcap. A crowd estimated at 48,000, the best that has been present at the Browns' park this season, saw the slaughter of the elephants.

Yesterday's double victory gave the Browns a record of 12 victories against five defeats, a winning percentage of .732 since returning home. When the team returned from its Eastern circuit it had a mark of .480 and counting two defeats in Cleveland, July 4, brought it down to .462. This shows that the Browns on their home stand have gained 67 points.

Williams Gets Timely Hit.
 A timely double by Kenneth Williams in the sixth inning of the opening contest came with the Athletics two runs ahead and with Kinney pitching sensationally for the tail-enders. Prior to this frame, only three Browns had reached first and none had advanced to the middle sack.

In this round, with one out, Bronkie singled and Gedeon walked. Tobin sacrificed the pair along and then Slater was purposely passed, filling the bases. Williams then smashed a double down the left field line, clearing the sacks. In the seventh Severid singled with one out, Sothoron walked and was forced by Bronkie, but Gedeon hit, allowing the catcher to make a safe throw.

Although Allan Sothoron registered his eighth straight victory, he was hit harder than usual, the Mackmen finding him for nine safeties, including a brace of doubles. Mack's charges put over their first run in the second frame when with one out, Kopp walked, stopped at second on Dugan's single. The pair then executed a double steal and Kopp tallied while Gedeon was retiring McAvoy at first. Another Athletic run in the sixth was started by Gerber's error, while the final tally in the ninth also resulted after an error by Gerber.

Koob Batted From Hill.
 The concluding game saw Ernie Koob standing on the hill for Burke. The little southpaw twirled fair ball, but was driven over the ninth, when Urban Shocker took up the duties and gave as great an exhibition of pinch-pitching as has been seen here in some time. Shocker went in with the score tied, men on first and third and none out.

The first batter he faced was Burns, a good hitter. Shocker, however, struck him out. Then Strunk stole second. Shocker hit to Slater and Walker was out at the plate. Tillie did not like the decision and was balked by Connolly. Dugan slapped to Shocker and the round was over. In the next two frames Shocker held the A's safe.

Kenneth Williams, who put the Browns in the running in the first game, starting the winning rally in the eleventh, with a single. He was forced by Smith, while Gerber went out. Mayer was purposely passed and Perry lost control and walked Shocker, filling the corners. Bronkie then hit a single off Perry's glove and the game was over.

Athletics Get Early Lead.
 As was the case in the opener, the Athletics started with a lead of two runs, scoring one in the second and another in the third. However, the Browns tied it at the expense of Tom Rogers, a former member of the local staff, in the fourth. Gedeon doubled and stopped at third on Tobin's hit. Slater scored, while Tobin came over when Williams forced the first sacker.

The Browns went into the lead in the eighth, after the Mackmen had tallied one in their portion of the round. Bronkie singled and was advanced by Gedeon. Tobin filed out, but Slater singled scoring Bronkie. George reached second on the throwin. Williams was again there in the pinch, scoring Slater with a single.

It looked dark for the Browns in the ninth. Thomas opened with a double and advanced on Smith's error. Walker singled, scoring Smith. Walker went to second on a wild pitch and stopped at third on Strunk's safety. That ended Koob and Shocker came in and gave the exhibition which already has been related.

From the above it can be seen that six of the Browns' nine runs were scored after two men had been retired, all of them on clean hits.

The Uplift.

Our blood with anger boils.

 And eggs are on the wing;
 And milk and everything;
 It seems that everybody stings.

We hoped to save a lot of tin

 Up went the price of shoes!

"Account of war" it used to be

 And so we stuck around to see

The blockade against Germany has everything!

No Argument.

Jess Willard made Ollie Pecord sign an agreement not to decide the result on points without consulting the judges. However, in order to avoid complications, Jack Dempsey decided to decide the matter in his own quiet way. And when Jack hands down a decision there is no room for argument.

 may be an expert on towels, but as a bell ringer he is a frost.

Meadows Has One Weakinning and Superbas Win, 3-1

Cardinals and Brooklyn Continue Five-Game Series Today With the Count Even.

NEW YORK, July 14.—With the count even at a game apiece, the Cardinals and Dodgers continue with their five-game series at Ebbets Field this afternoon. Ames or one of the second string men may be tried by Rickey against Sherry Smith or Al Mamau.

Wilbert Robinson is much better for pitchers than is Rickey. The Cards cracked wide open for one inning against the Dodgers yesterday, and one of the best games Meadows has pitched went for naught, Brooklyn winning 3-1.

The Dodgers showed much better baseball than they recently have been in the habit of doing. The whole team perked up and got down to business, hitting the pitcher, twirling gilt-edged ball and restoring splendid support. Cadore burned and hooked 'em over in great fashion. He had speed galore and a sweeping curve that kept the Cardinals expiring on easy grounders or slapping gentle flies in the fielders' hands. Leon held the Missourians to six hits, and only in the fourth inning did the Cardinals bunched a brace of singles for their lone run.

After Cadore howled the Cardinals over three in a row in the first half of the opening inning Olson started own quiet way. And when Jack hands down a decision there is no room for argument.

Warren Barbour, timekeeper for the big scrap, says that the towel was flung into the ring after the bell had been rung for the fourth round. Referee Pe- cord says in effect that Barbour may be an expert on towels, but as a bell ringer he is a frost.

St. Louis Players Win 3, Lose 1 on Chicago Courts

Harvey Frohlichstein, Val Satterfield and Walter Haase Victors in Net Matches.

By DAVISON OBEAR, Secretary St. Louis Tennis Association.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Of the four St. Louis stars who took part in the opening rounds of the ninth annual clay court tennis tournament being played at the South Side Tennis Club here, three were returned victors, while the fourth met defeat at the hands of Vernon Richards, considered the boy tennis wonder of America.

Ray Epstein, former Soldan High champion, drew a bye in the first round and was placed against Richards in the second. These two players were given the grandstand treatment, the crowd of over 300 persons watching the match.

Ray displayed no stage fright whatever. He played the match against G. Satterfield, who took the first set at 6-4, but tied in the second and lost at 6-3. However, in the third set Val braced and won out at 6-1.

In the second Epstein improved his game by staying in the back court more. By carefully placed Lawford strokes, he kept Richards away from the net during the first part of this set. At three games all, Epstein netted a number of balls and Richards reverted to his excellent chop stroke and took the set at 6-3. Epstein put up a good fight against tremendous odds and his showing was a credit to the St. Louis delegation.

Harvey Frohlichstein surprised the local followers by defeating George Byington, winner of the Chicago veteran championship. Although forced to two close sets, 6-4, 6-4, Frohlichstein had the edge on his opponent throughout the match. He had only to take the net to win the necessary points. Frohlichstein is now in the fourth round. Walter Haase had an easy time against F. T. Foss, a local player, winning in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2.

The night ride on the train seemed to effect Val Satterfield in his match against G. Satterfield. Satterfield took the first set at 6-4, but tied in the second and lost at 6-3. However, in the third set Val braced and won out at 6-1.

MAYBE IT WAS SOMETHING ELSE.
We used to believe that McPickle's would be a great and successful career. If he hadn't been cursed with a masterful thirst for whisky and cocktails and beer. "How sad," we observed, "that so brilliant a mind—such talents—such greatness of soul—should all disappear in the poisonous cheer that lurks in the blinding bowl!" But now that McPickle has got to stay dry, if he doesn't leap into renouveau. Certain cynics may think that it wasn't the drink; after all, that was holding him down.

When Slosser would often-times beat up his wife. His tolerant neighbors would say: "He would not act so rude if he wasn't half stewed. It's the liquor that gets him that way. Whenever he's sober he suffers remorse. He's as gentle and meek as a child. But a highball or two, or too much of the brew will make him excited and wild." And always they have put all the blame on the booze. Poor Slosser, they said, was a saint. But now it's July and the country is dry. They may possibly find that he ain't.

A drunkard's confession I recently read. The writer related as how if he'd only let up on the flagon and cup that he might be a Senator now. He told how his schoolmates, with half of his brains had earned themselves money and fame. While he—poor old soul—had been utterly broke by bucking the alcohol game. But now that he's got to get off of the stuff if he doesn't make good before long, And beat out those chaps that he mentions, perhaps he will find that he had himself wrong.

MERELY A SUGGESTION.

Possibly the internal revenue officers could be persuaded to dump confiscated booze into the municipal water-supply reservoirs.

OMAR FITZNOODLE COMMANDED RESPECT.
WHEN HE SPOKE, EVERY WORD WAS REFINED AND CORRECT.

HIS DAD THOUGHT HIS BOY WAS A TERRIBLE FREAK. HE GAGGED HIM WHENEVER HE STARTED TO SPEAK.

HIS FATHER STOOD BY AND HE LISTENED WITH GLEE, "HE'S A GENTLEMAN, SCHOLAR AND BLESSING," SAID HE.

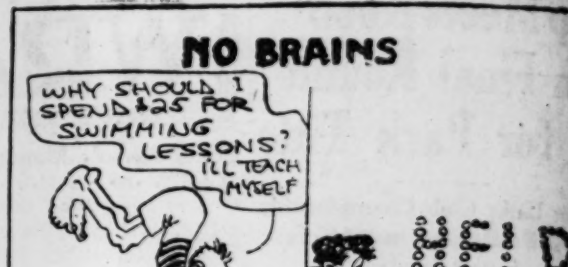

FITZNOODLE TRIED, LATER, THE SENATE TO REACH, BUT THE VOTERS ALL SLEPT THROUGH HIS LONG-WINDED SPEECH.

ALADDIN MEGINNIS BELONGED TO A "GANG," THE WORDS THAT HE USED WERE THE ROUGHEST OF SLANG.

HIS OPPONENT, MEGINNIS, JUST PEDDLED PLAIN TALK, HE HANDED 'EM SLANG-AND HE WON IN A WALK!
